

ORAL EXAMINATION

Each candidate is invited to prepare a 20 min presentation of his/her master thesis (at the blackboard or with computer slides), after which there will be a discussion and question session with the Selection Committee. The questions will concern: the master thesis work; possible research projects for the future; general mathematical knowledge of the subjects most directly connected with the reasearch field of the candidate.